

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
RNID (Royal National Institute for Deaf People)	Go Get IT! Project; Enhancing the employability of London's parents with sensory disabilities	Disabled parents	RNID and Action for Blind People will work collaboratively to enhance the employability of parents with sensory disabilities residing within the Greater London area. This will enable them to access, maintain and progress within a chosen career.	£248,277
The Citizens Trust (Disability Times Trust)	Disabled Parents Employment Service	Disabled parents	The project will integrate advocacy, training, mentoring, job brokerage and outreach support, focusing on and developing effective strategies, to facilitate the active entry of disabled parents into the labour market. Aimed particularly at the currently economically inactive outcomes include employment, training and other positive progressions.	£213,680
Tomorrow's People	Experience to Employment	People with mental health problems	Working in partnership with the North East London Mental Health Trust (NELMHT), Tomorrow's People will support people with mental health conditions to overcome their barriers to employment and/or training. Provision includes jointly run workshops with NELMHT Occupational Therapists, supported work placements at the Trust and ongoing 1:1 support.	£229,332
Fredericks Foundation	Enterprising Minds	People with mental health problems	Enterprising Minds will provide individually tailored support towards self-employment for people with mental health conditions, involving their mental health teams closely in the programme. Clients will design their own work arrangements, building on their talents and strengths while catering for their mental health needs and commercial realities.	£223,537
SHARE Community	My Future	People with mental health problems	My Future is a holistic programme providing vocational training in ICT and employability training; job search and work placements; confidence building and life coaching using a Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT) model. Based in Brixton, Lambeth, the programme is open to people with mental health problems from across London, but with the focus on Lambeth and Southwark.	£219,897
Turning Point ACAPS	Next Steps	People recovering from addiction (early stages)	Next Steps works in partnership with mainstream colleges to deliver a six-week, accredited, work preparation course specifically for people recovering from drug and alcohol addiction. With project workers providing additional 1:1 support, employment advice and group work, individuals feel able to access mainstream training, FE and employment.	£249,754

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
Cranstoun Drug Services	Milton Skills for Life Programme	People recovering from addiction (early stages)	The provision of a structured but flexible, stepped progression to education, training and employment within a specialist drug and alcohol service. Clients can access a range of generic and specialist interventions providing support in addressing their substance use and barriers to employment through innovative opportunities for sustainable change.	£216,160
Red Kite Learning	Fresh Start	People recovering from addiction (later stages)	This is a partnership programme between Red Kite Learning, Equinox and Broadway, supported by 6 strategic partners that will engage with 85 participants with a history of substance misuse. The project will support each participant to improve their employability skills through work placements and employability training.	£218,788
Shaw Trust Ltd.	Shaw Trust LSASM Project	People recovering from addiction (later stages)	This project will support 100 people suffering drug & alcohol addiction across 7 London Boroughs & focus on supporting these beneficiaries to re-engage into society. This will be achieved by offering advice & guidance, supported employment & training support to overcome barriers faced by those within the late stage addictions/substance misuse	£219,919
St Giles Trust	Support into Work	Homeless individuals	The programme will deliver Information Advice and Guidance (IAG), assessment, employability support and training for 85 homeless adults. Working in partnership with agencies providing day services for homeless adults in Croydon, Lambeth, Lewisham and Southwark, provision includes support from a professionally trained and developing team of Peer Advisors.	£216,875
The Salvation Army	Moving Up and On	Homeless individuals	The project will enable a dedicated employment advisor to work as part of the staff team in our hostels to offer pre-employment training, IAG, job brokerage and in-work support to our residents, who due to current funding criteria are excluded from this individualised valuable service.	£217,656
The Vine Project, Surrey	Moving forward	Homeless families	We will offer participants from homeless households practical training and support to help find and maintain employment, and to budget and manage money. It will also support them with practical help in building and maintaining a home, that prepares the ground for being able to move towards employment.	£218,663

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
Broomleigh Housing Association	Homeless Families Support Project	Homeless families	The project assists homeless families within the boroughs of Bromley, Croydon and Southwark whose circumstances may place them outside of mainstream provision through a programme of advice and guidance, personal support and signposting, and employability and social training to progress to employment or further job search and training.	£219,451
Off the Streets and into Work (OSW)	Work for Homeless Households	Homeless families	The project will provide employment-focused advice, guidance and practical support to families in temporary accommodation in west London. It will use a coaching methodology to assist economically inactive family members address employment barriers such as debt, benefits, housing, and personal support needs related to physical and mental ill health.	£257,470
Women Like Us	From Playground to Payslip	Workless families	From Playground to Payslip will engage 110 economically inactive, workless parents, predominantly women, through their children's primary schools, and provide them with a tailored programme of IAG, employment training and job brokerage. The project will support 60 into further jobsearch or training and at least 30 into flexible employment.	£224,312
Community Links	Working Together	Workless families	An employer focused project providing jobsearch, work experience, employability training, job mentoring / into employment support, childcare support and advice for jobless parents who are long term unemployed. It will focus on BAMEs, lone parents, individuals with little or no work experience and those with basic skills needs.	£203,813
Tamil Relief Centre - Enfield Education and Training Centre	Parents into Jobs (PIJ)	Workless families	Parents Into Jobs project tackles worklessness among 90 economically inactive and unemployed parents in North London by providing a comprehensive package of ICT, Basic Skills, Skills for Life training integrated with job search/brokerage, personal development support to help them move into sustainable employment or further training and jobsearch.	£231,152
5E Ltd.	Parents into Work	Workless families	The project will support 85 jobless parents with IAG and outreach at community venues including schools, employability training, personal development, confidence building, work readiness training, job brokerage, work placement opportunities, labour market information and additional support. 61% of participants will progress into sustainable jobs.	£213,232
Groundwork London	Moving Forward	Workless families	Moving Forward will increase employment of jobless parents in South and West London boroughs by providing local opportunities for immediate employment and longer term career options working with children in health and social care and education. Groundwork London will reach a total of 96 beneficiaries mainly women from BAME	£242,337

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
			background.
ELATT	Learn to Integrate (II)	Refugee and asylum seekers	We will address the major barrier hindering the integration of refugees into the workforce and asylum seekers into the wider society by equipping them with the language skills to meet their individual needs. For refugees this will be embedded in an employability skills development programme to accelerate them into jobs.	£249,631
Refugees in Effective and Active Partnership	Preparing for Interpreting Programme (PIP)	Refugee and asylum seekers	In West London, PIP supports new, female refugees with young children and pre-entry level English, to move from economic inactivity towards employability. PIP provides personalised support; English teaching and usage; life/basic skills; work-related experience and employability support through brokerage and clear pathways to further training.	£222,343
Pecan	Engage	Refugee and asylum seekers	To provide ESOL language training and employment support to refugees & asylum seekers enabling them to understand and adapt to life in the UK. It will provide information about law, culture, housing, welfare, health, education and employment with practical support and ongoing assistance.	£198,627
Kenya Women Association (KEWA)	Ascend	Refugee and asylum seekers	This project supports refugees and asylum seekers, especially those with a long-term health condition through holistic Information, Advice, and Guidance), non-vocational & vocational ESOL, and a dedicated 'Living Well' programme to help people cope with the effects of long-term health conditions.	£221,690
TR TEC	Basic Skills Training	Refugee and asylum seekers	The project will recruit 115 Tamil refugees from Greater London and provide them training in ESOL and Basic ICT skills. It will provide confidence building, motivation and job search skills. The aim is to facilitate integration, settlement and tackle discrimination. Key outputs include 100 ESOL qualifications, 100 ICT Level 1 qualifications, 38 people into employment and 71 people onto further training.	£227,377
Orient Regeneration Ltd	BME Women into Jobs	BME Women	Project will recruit 90 BME women mainly from Bangladeshi, Pakistani and Somali groups and offer culturally sensitive education, training, employment advice, support and guidance including developing home based employment such as childcare. Key outputs: 13 jobs on leaving project, 16 jobs six months after leaving, 53 into further jobsearch/training.	£206,934

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
Barnabas Workshops	First Steps	BME Women	Our project will provide a comprehensive package of training, IAG, childcare and 1-2-1 support to marginalised unemployed women from Bangladeshi, Pakistani and Somali communities not currently engaged by other training providers.	£218,788
Urban Voice UK	The Business!	BME Women	The Business! is for 19 - 30 year old BAME women who want to enter creative employment or are interested in setting up their own creative businesses/social enterprises. Training will be tailored to suit beneficiaries own individual needs including a range of compulsory and optional activities.	£253,863
London Central YMCA Ltd.	Engaging BME Women in Employment Opportunities in the Health and Fitness Sector in London	BME Women	The project aims to get Bangladeshi and Pakistani women into employment within the fitness sector. We will deliver specially adapted fitness qualifications supported by peer-to-peer mentoring; and provide a job brokerage service including CV writing and interview skills. We will recruit 90 women one third of whom will gain employment.	£157,555
Samafal - Somali Families Association (SAMAFAL)	Nagaad (Peaceful; settlement)	BME Women	Nagaad (Peaceful settlement) aims to reach out to Somali women who are near job ready and up skill them to participate effectively in the labour market. A holistic delivery model will be adapted by Samafal and its network of Somali professionals by creating a needs led partnership and understanding with the delivery and strategic partners.	£201,701
Holy Cross Centre Trust (HCCT)	Care 2 Work	Carers	Care2Work provides progression for unemployed carers into flexible carer-friendly employment. The project develops and builds upon transferable skills. This will be achieved through IAG, job brokerage and vocational training in Mental Health Care. Beneficiaries will access free care services for their dependents via a care hours exchange scheme.	£226,924
Carers UK	ACE London (Carers)	Carers	The project will support carers to move into or towards work, working in partnership with relevant agencies and community organisations across eight London boroughs. It will deliver pre-vocational training, individual advocacy, information, advice and guidance, employer brokerage and workplace training and signposting to support services.	£243,544
Third Age Foundation (TAF)	FORCE ;Fifty+ Opportunities for Re-(Skilling) Carers in E (Technology)	Former carers	'FORCE' targets 85 workless/50+former carers in 10 Boroughs, lacking confidence and work skills. They access a bespoke and holistic personal development, Sfl/ICT employer-led up-skilling package of IAG; diagnostic assessment; confidence, motivation, assertiveness and action plan building; employability and enterprise training along with work placements and aftercare for 6 months.	£220,063

Organisation	Project Title	Target Group	Project description	Funding (Two years)
Wise Owls Employment Agency Ltd.	Care 2 Work	Former carers	C2W will use our collective partners 50+ experience and experience with ex-carers to provide full IAG, employment and training support to London's over 50s workless ex-carers to help them obtain sustainable employment, focusing on ethnic minorities, long term unemployed, people with disabilities, lone parents and other disadvantaged groups.	£252,637