Women's Aid
Project name:	London Refuges Data Collection Project
Priority:	Priority 2: Tackling Domestic and Sexual Abuse
Specification:	2.3 Helpline services (advice and support, access to refuge provision)
Amount (1 year):	£25,000
Delivery partners: N/A
The London Refuges Data Collection project provides an evidence base on the availability and use of domestic abuse refuge provision in London. It aims to inform stakeholders about these services and support the commissioning of services. The data collection for this project uses Routes to Support (RtS), the UK VAWG service directory which Women's Aid Federation of England run in partnership with our sister federations in Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Data in London on referrals and women's journeys is collected through RtS as part of refuge services routine work. That means that when London-based staff update refuge vacancies on the system they are required to enter additional information about the women using their services. Women's Aid share quarterly data reports with London Councils, MOPAC² and Borough officers including VAWG leads, Commissioners and Community Safety Officers. These stakeholders also have access to an interactive Data Dashboard which is on a password-protected area of the Women's Aid website. Women's Aid present the data at various fora in London and also produce an annual data summary which is shared with all London refuge providers.

Ashiana Network
Project name:	Ascent Specialist Refuge Partnership
Priority:	Priority 2: Tackling Domestic and Sexual Abuse
Specification:	2.4 Emergency Specialist Refuge Provision
Amount (1 year):	£840,000 (from April 2023)
Delivery partners: Ashiana Network, Solace Women's Aid, Nia, Iranian & Kurdish Women's Rights Organisation (IKWRO)
Our project aims to relieve homelessness, reduce and address the harms of domestic abuse by providing routes to safe and appropriate accommodation for women identified as the most marginalised, most frequently excluded by other services, and therefore at great risk of sustained harm and homelessness. This project is an established, proven partnership of four of London's most experienced, specialist refuge providers. Our project provides three services, of which refuge is the core. We will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 39 specialist refuge and second-stage accommodation bedspaces to marginalised women such as: women with no recourse to public funds (NRPF); Black and minoritised women fleeing harmful practice; women who have been sexually exploited, trafficked, or are exiting prostitution and women with mental health, dual diagnosis and/or problematic drug and alcohol usage. • An OISC level 2 Immigration Solicitor who will assist in regularising the immigration status of survivors, so they are able to access safe and appropriate accommodation they're currently excluded from. The solicitor is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). • A Partnerships Officer who will work alongside all partners in collaboration with the wider Ascent Consortium to promote and ensure equitable, effective referral pathways into our service from all 33 boroughs, all borough IDVA/ISVA teams, and safe accommodation services. We aim to support 137 women from any London borough with complex and multiple needs and otherwise/unlikely to be accepted into any other form of safe accommodation, access to safe, sustained and highly-specialist refuge beds. We will also support 72 survivors of VAWG to regularise their immigration status. For both sets of women, additional positive impacts will follow including improved sense of safety and improved access to specialist support. 111 of our total cohort will be supported to move on from refuge in a planned way during the lifetime of the project. In achieving these outcomes will help to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reduce demand pressures on London's statutory services, including open referral pathways and co-working opportunities with every London borough. • help women avoid unplanned and crisis presentations at housing, health, and frontline commissioned services. • help women present to services in planned ways, support their sustained and positive contact with services, and support women's readiness for longer-term independence.
