

REGISTRATION OF GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

OFFICERS

Officers must register with the Director of Finance and Administration each gift, favour, reward or hospitality offered by a person or organisation that is doing, or seeking to do business with London Councils.¹

Officers should refer to paragraph 2.14 of the Code of Conduct for Employees for further information regarding special dispensations for the acceptance of certain gifts and hospitality. A copy of paragraph 2.14 of the Code of Conduct for Employees is contained in Appendix A.

The Director of Finance and Administration has a standard form for officers that must be completed in order for an offer to be registered. A copy of the officers' form is contained in Appendix C.

MEMBERS

Pursuant to their local authority's Code of Conduct for Members, Members will have a similar duty to register gifts and hospitality with their local authority's Monitoring Officer. Nevertheless, London Councils requires Members to also register with the Director of Finance and Administration any offer of a gift or hospitality that is:

- a) over the value of £25; and
- b) from a person or organisation that is doing, or seeking to do business with London Councils, within 28 days of receiving that offer.

Members and officers are personally responsible for their actions in connection with any offer of a gift, favour, reward or hospitality and the completion of the register does not relieve them of the responsibility to justify their acceptance of such an offer.

The Director of Finance and Administration has a standard form for Members that must be completed in order for an offer to be registered. A copy of the Members' form is contained in Appendix B.

Breaches of this duty will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action for officers and a formal complaint being made to the Standards Board for England for Members.

2.14 GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

Paragraph 2.3 of the London Councils' Financial Regulations states: -

"The Finance Officer shall maintain a register in which officers shall enter each gift, favour, reward or hospitality offered by a person or organisation doing, or seeking to do business with the organisation".

As such employees MUST register the receipt/offer of any gift or hospitality. The Finance Officer has a standard form for employees that must be completed in order for the receipt/offer to be registered.

Offers of gifts or hospitality (this refers to both gifts or hospitality received by and offered to third parties) must be treated with caution whenever any suggestion of improper influence could arise. To prevent any improper behaviour, or suggestion of improper behaviour arising employees must take great care when a gift or hospitality is offered/received. Gifts or hospitality offered/received should not be extravagant and nor should they be taken from or given to the same client or individual on a frequent basis.

If employees are in doubt about whether a gift or hospitality offered can be accepted or offered advice should be sought from the relevant Director.

Any employee accepting/offering money for doing or not doing anything or showing favour or disfavour to any person in their official capacity shall be subject to immediate dismissal.

Special Dispensation

Employees should only accept/give offers of gifts or hospitality if there is a genuine need to impart information or represent the London Councils in the community and must comply with the provisions below:

- Employees shall be allowed to receive books, diaries, pens, pencils, calendars and similar articles provided that the overall value of the gift is not more than £20
- Working lunches are permissible provided that the employee has the approval of the Director
- The Chief Executive and Directors shall be entitled to attend working lunches and functions as representatives of London Councils.
- Employees can represent London Councils at functions, openings, launches and other similar functions with the approval of the relevant Director.
- Employees may receive gifts from visiting dignitaries who have received approved their Director.
- Any such other matters as the Chief Executive and the Finance Officer may approve from time to time.

Date last revised: 26/03/04

Employees still must register the receipt/offer of any gift or hospitality even if it is included in the list above.

Employees are personally responsible for their actions in connection with any offer of a gift, favour, reward or hospitality and the completion of the register does not relieve them of the responsibility to justify their acceptance of such an offer.

Breaches of this duty will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action.
