Summary

This paper sets out the Terms of Reference for the RPG's Operational Sub-Group

1 Background

- 1.1 The London Regional Planning Group (RPG) is now operating on behalf of the 32 London boroughs in accordance with the London proposals for 14-19 education and training agreed with the Department for Children, Schools and Families.
- 1.2 At its December 2009 meeting, the RPG agreed a proposal to formalise its sub-group structure. This provided for
 - 1.2.1. Regional Allocations Group (RAG) to fulfil a function allowing for commissioning decisions to be agreed by all local authority stakeholders and reporting directly to the RPG via the RPG Director, who has primary responsibility to produce the London regional commissioning plan;
 - 1.2.2. Disputes Panel, which sits alongside the RPG to arbitrate where disagreements arise between local authorities, or local authorities and providers, where a dispute cannot be resolved locally. The panel is made up of three members of the RPG and reports directly to the RPG;
 - 1.2.3. Operational Sub-Group (OSG) to co-ordinate the work of other sub-groups as required and to oversee workstrands as directed by the RPG. It reports directly to the RPG via the RPG Director.

2 The Aim of the OSG

- 2.1 The aim of the OSG is to provide scrutiny of the RPG's work-plan and to provide advice and support to the RPG Director in accordance with the RPG principles (attached as Annex A).

3 The Role of the OSG

- 3.1 Co-ordinate and evaluate other sub-groups. The RPG has the following sub-groups that shall agree their terms of reference with and report to the OSG:
 - 3.1.1. Achieving Excellence in Advice and Guidance Task Group;

 - 3.1.3. Learners with Learning Difficulties and Disabilities (LLDD) Stakeholder Group. This Group also has a reporting line into the Skills Funding Agency;
 - 3.1.4. Offender Learning Stakeholder Group.
- 3.2 Oversee workstrands. The RPG Director shall agree with the Leaders Group each year on behalf of, and with the agreement of, the RPG a work plan and annual operating budget, including projects. The OSG shall monitor the progress in implementing the work plan and shall evaluate the projects conducted by the RPG Director;
- 3.3 Competence to decide or recommend. The OSG can recommend courses of action to the RPG. The OSG can only make decisions that have been formally delegated to it by the RPG and such delegation shall express the extent of any decision that the OSG may make. The OSG does not have a delegated budget.
- 3.4 Events. The OSG shall advise the RPG on the conduct, content and organisation of events sponsored by or held in the name of the RPG

4 Membership of the OSG

- 4.1 The membership of the OSG will comprise:
 - 4.1.1. RPG Director (Chair)

- 4.4.1. The decision to take a recommendation to a vote rests solely with the Chair.

5 Key Responsibilities of OSG Members

- 5.1 OSG members are individuals and not delegates of any other organisation. They have a responsibility to provide guidance, advice and information germane to their areas of expertise.
- 5.2 OSG members, in their capacity as representatives of the RPG, have a responsibility to advise and support local authority colleagues in matters relating to the work of the RPG.

6 Frequency of Meetings and Secretariat Function

- 6.1 As far as may be practicable, the OSG shall meet monthly, but at least within four weeks of a scheduled meeting of the RPG (in order to agree recommendations that the OSG shall put to the RPG) and no later than four weeks after each scheduled meeting of the RPG (to ensure that the work-plan is updated appropriately).
- 6.2 The Secretariat Function for the group will be provided by the RPG Director within the resources agreed by London Councils Leaders Group.

7 Accountability of the OSG

- 7.1 The strategic accountability for the London 14-19 offer sits with the RPG and shall be supported by the OSG. The OSG is accountable to all local authorities through the RPG.

The Regional Planning Group (RPG) has established the following principles to underpin the new arrangements from April 2010:

- i. Making the learner central: and ensuring as much funding as possible goes to the front line. The new arrangements should further equity and inclusion for London's young people.
- ii. Provider-neutral commissioning: with commissioning choices made on the basis of effectiveness and responsiveness alone.
- iii. Demand-led: commissioning choices will focus on learner and employer needs and ensure that they are engaged and consulted.
- iv. Employment and skills: new arrangements should make best use of data and be responsive to the London skills agenda so that (in conjunction with effective IAG) they contribute to the employability of young people and meeting London's business needs.
- v. Quality and curriculum: new arrangements must support a focus on improving the quality of provision and providing learners with a comprehensive curriculum offer and range of pathways to further qualifications.
- vi. Local decision making: all 16-19 commissioning decisions should be taken within authorities local to the provision. Regional or other arrangements should be developed only in support of local decision-making and to provide a strategic context for decision-making.
- vii. Transparency: the new arrangements must be straightforward for learners, providers, employers and local authorities, with clear structures for decision-making and funding flows.
- viii. Reducing bureaucracy: the new arrangements should reduce bureaucracy for providers and local authorities.
- ix. Collaboration: commissioning will facilitate partnership working and ensure provider strengths, specialisms, expertise and innovation are used to secure the greatest benefit for all learners.
- x. Continuity: there needs to be a smooth handover from LSC and providers will need clarity about the new arrangements sooner rather than later.
